PROSPECTUS SUPPLEMENT SUMMARY

This summary highlights selected information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus. It does not contain all of the information you should consider before making an investment decision. You should read this entire prospectus supplement, the accompanying prospectus, the documents incorporated by reference and the other documents to which we refer for a more complete understanding of our business and this offering. Please read the section entitled “Risk Factors” in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023, which is incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement, for more information about important factors you should consider before you make your investment decision.

Our Business

Our principal businesses consist of three reporting segments: oil and gas, chemical and midstream and marketing. The oil and gas segment explores for, develops and produces oil (which includes condensate), NGL and natural gas. The chemical segment primarily manufactures and markets basic chemicals and vinyls. The midstream and marketing segment purchases, markets, gathers, processes, transports and stores oil, NGL, natural gas, carbon dioxide and power. It also optimizes its transportation and storage capacity, and invests in entities that conduct similar activities, such as Western Midstream Partners, L.P.

The midstream and marketing segment also includes our low-carbon ventures businesses (“OLCV”). OLCV seeks to leverage our legacy of carbon management expertise to develop carbon capture, utilization and storage projects, including the commercialization of direct air capture technology, and invests in other low-carbon technologies intended to reduce greenhouse gas emissions from our operations and strategically partner with other industries to help reduce their emissions.

Acquisition of CrownRock

As previously disclosed, on August 1, 2024, we closed the acquisition (the “CrownRock Acquisition”) of 100% of the issued and outstanding partner interests of CrownRock, L.P. (“CrownRock”) and issued the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus supplement relates to the Selling Stockholder. For certain unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements of Occidental Petroleum Corporation giving effect to the CrownRock Acquisition and other related transactions, see our Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the SEC on July 19, 2024 and August 12, 2024 and incorporated by reference herein.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our common stock involves risks. Before you invest in our common stock, you should carefully consider the following risk factors, in addition to the other information contained or incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement and the accompanying prospectus. Specifically, please see “Risk Factors” included in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023, as such risks may be updated or supplemented in this prospectus supplement, and the other information in that and the other reports that we file with the SEC that are incorporated by reference in this prospectus supplement or the accompanying prospectus for a discussion of risk factors that may affect the business.

Risks Related to Our Common Stock and this Offering

Our stock price may fluctuate significantly.

The market price of our common stock could vary significantly as a result of a number of factors, some of which are beyond our control. In the event of a drop in the market price of our common stock, you could lose a substantial part or all of your investment in our common stock. Among others, the following factors could affect our stock price:

- our business performance and prospects;
- sales of our common stock, or the perception that such sales may occur, by us or by our stockholders;
- quarterly variations in the rates of growth of our operating and financial indicators, such as net income (loss) per share, net income (loss) and total revenue;
- changes in our dividend policy;
- any failure to achieve near or long term goals we have publicly disclosed for our operating and financial performance;
- the public reaction to our press releases, our other public announcements and our filings with the SEC;
- strategic actions by our competitors, such as acquisitions, restructurings, significant contracts, joint marketing relationships, joint ventures or capital commitments;
- introduction of new products and services by us or our competitors;
- announcements related to litigation;
- our failure to meet revenue or earnings estimates made by research analysts or other investors;
- changes in revenue or earnings estimates, or changes in recommendations or withdrawal of research coverage, by equity research analysts;
- speculation in the press or investment community;
- changes in accounting principles, policies, guidance, interpretations or standards;
- additions or departures of key management personnel;
- actions by our stockholders;
- general market conditions;
- domestic and international economic, legal and regulatory factors unrelated to our performance; and
- the realization of any risks described under this “Risk Factors” section, or other risks that may materialize in the future.

The stock markets in general have experienced extreme volatility that has often been unrelated to the operating performance of particular companies. These broad market fluctuations may adversely affect the trading price of our common stock. Securities class action litigation has often been instituted against companies following periods of volatility in the overall market and in the market price of a company’s securities. Such litigation, if instituted against us, could result in substantial costs, divert our management’s attention and resources, and have a material adverse effect on our business, financial condition, results of operations and cash flows.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Our certificate of incorporation and applicable law could prevent a third party from acquiring us or limit the price that investors might be willing to pay for shares of our common stock.

Our amended and restated certificate of incorporation authorizes our board of directors to issue new series of preferred stock without stockholder approval. Depending on the rights and terms of any new series created, and the reaction of the market to the series, your rights or the value of your common stock could be negatively affected. For example, subject to applicable law, our board of directors could create a series of preferred stock with preferential rights to dividends or assets upon liquidation, or with superior voting rights to our existing common stock. The ability of our board of directors to issue these new series of preferred stock could also prevent or delay a third party from acquiring us, even if doing so would be beneficial to our stockholders.

In addition, we are subject to the anti-takeover provisions of Section 203 of the Delaware General Corporation Law (the “DGCL”), which prohibits Delaware corporations from engaging in certain business combinations with an interested stockholder (generally, a 15% or greater stockholder) for a period of three years after the date of the transaction in which the person first becomes an interested stockholder, unless:

- the business combination is approved in advance by a majority of the independent directors;
- upon consummation of the transaction which resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of our voting stock; or
- the business combination is approved by our board of directors and by the holders of at least two-thirds of the outstanding shares of our common stock that is not owned by the interested stockholder.

The application of Section 203 of the DGCL could have the effect of delaying or preventing a change of control of us.

Future sales of shares by us or our existing stockholders could cause our stock price to decline.

Sales of substantial amounts of our common stock in the public market following this offering, or the perception that these sales could occur, could cause the market price of our common stock to decline. These sales, or the possibility that these sales may occur, also might make it more difficult for us to sell equity securities in the future at a time and at a price that we deem appropriate.

If securities or industry analysts do not publish research or publish misleading or unfavorable research about our business, our common stock price and trading volume could decline.

The trading market for our common stock depends in part on the research and reports that securities or industry analysts may publish about us or our business. If one or more of the analysts that covers our common stock downgrades our stock or publishes misleading or unfavorable research about our business, our stock price would likely decline. If one or more of the analysts ceases coverage of our common stock or fails to publish reports on us regularly, demand for our common stock could decrease, which could cause our common stock price or trading volume to decline.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The Selling Stockholder will receive the proceeds from the sale of shares of our common stock pursuant to this prospectus supplement. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of these shares of common stock. We will generally bear the costs associated with the sale of the shares in this offering by the Selling Stockholder, other than underwriting discounts and commissions. See “Underwriting” and “Selling Stockholder.”

SELLING STOCKHOLDER

The following table sets forth information as of July 31, 2024 with respect to the beneficial ownership of our common stock by the Selling Stockholder as well as the number of shares of common stock that may be sold by the Selling Stockholder under this prospectus supplement.

In connection with the closing of the CrownRock Acquisition, we and the Selling Stockholder entered into a registration rights agreement, dated as of August 1, 2024 (the “Registration Rights Agreement”). Under the Registration Rights Agreement, the Selling Stockholder has certain underwritten offering demand rights and piggyback registration rights with respect to certain offerings conducted by Occidental for its own account or other Occidental shareholders.

The amounts and percentages of shares beneficially owned are reported on the basis of regulations of the SEC governing the determination of beneficial ownership of securities. Under SEC rules, a person is deemed to be a “beneficial owner” of a security if that person has or shares voting power or investment power, which includes the power to dispose of or to direct the disposition of such security. A person is also deemed to be a beneficial owner of any securities of which that person has a right to acquire beneficial ownership within 60 days. Securities that can be so acquired are deemed to be outstanding for purposes of computing such person’s ownership percentage, but not for purposes of computing any other person’s percentage. Under these rules, more than one person may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of the same securities, and a person may be deemed to be a beneficial owner of securities as to which such person has no economic interest.

Selling Stockholder	Common Stock Beneficially Owned Before the Offering		Common Stock Beneficially Owned After the Offering
CrownRock Holdings, L.P. ⁽²⁾	29,560,619	3.26%	—	—

(1) Percentage is based on 905,615,720 shares of common stock outstanding as of July 31, 2024.

(2) These shares are held directly by CrownRock Holdings, L.P. CrownRock Holdings, L.P.’s general partner is CrownRock Holdings GP, LLC. Jonathan Farber, J McLane, Timothy M. Dunn and Robert W. Floyd are the directors of CrownRock Holdings GP, LLC. The business address of CrownRock Holdings, L.P. is 18 Desta Dr., Midland, Texas 79705.

DIVIDEND POLICY

Subject to the dividend rights of the holders of any outstanding series of preferred stock, the holders of shares of common stock will be entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by our board of directors. We will pay those dividends either in cash, shares of common stock, or otherwise, at the rate and on the date or dates as declared by our board of directors. Accruals of dividends on our common stock will not bear interest. As a Delaware corporation, we are subject to statutory limitations on the declaration and payment of dividends. On July 25, 2024, our board of directors declared a dividend of $0.22 per share of common stock. The dividend will be paid on October 15, 2024 to holders of record of our common stock on September 10, 2024. See the section of the accompanying prospectus captioned “Description of Capital Stock” beginning on page 9 for a detailed description of our capital stock.

UNDERWRITING

J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, Morgan Stanley & Co. LLC and RBC Capital Markets, LLC are underwriters for this offering. The term “underwriters” shall mean either the singular or plural as context requires. Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in an underwriting agreement among us, the Selling Stockholder and the underwriters, the Selling Stockholder has agreed to sell to the underwriters, and the underwriters have agreed to purchase from the Selling Stockholder, 29,560,619 shares of common stock (the “shares”).

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the underwriting agreement, the underwriters have agreed to purchase all of the shares sold under the underwriting agreement if any of these shares are purchased. If the underwriters default, the underwriting agreement provides that the underwriting agreement may be terminated.

We and the Selling Stockholder have agreed to indemnify the underwriters against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or to contribute to payments the underwriters may be required to make in respect of those liabilities.

The underwriters are offering the shares, subject to prior sale, when, as and if accepted by them, subject to approval of legal matters by their counsel, including the validity of the shares, and other conditions contained in the underwriting agreement, such as the receipt by the underwriters of officer’s certificates and legal opinions. The underwriters reserve the right to withdraw, cancel or modify offers to the public and to reject orders in whole or in part.

The underwriters have agreed to purchase the shares from the Selling Stockholder at a price of $58.15 per share, which will result in approximately $1.719 billion of proceeds to the Selling Stockholder before expenses. The underwriters propose to offer the shares from time to time for sale in one or more transactions on the NYSE, in the over-the-counter market, through negotiated transactions or otherwise at market prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices. The underwriters may effect such transactions by selling the shares to or through dealers, and such dealers may receive compensation in the form of discounts, concessions or commissions from the underwriters and/or purchasers for whom they may act as agents or to whom they may sell as principal. The offering of the shares by the underwriters is subject to receipt and acceptance and subject to the underwriters’ right to reject any order in whole or in part. In connection with the sale of the shares offered hereby, the underwriters may be deemed to have received compensation in the form of underwriting discounts.

We estimate that our total expenses related to this offering will be approximately $1.0 million.

Certain of the underwriters and their respective affiliates have, from time to time, performed, and may in the future perform, various financial advisory and investment banking services for us, for which they received or will receive customary fees and expenses. The underwriters are full service financial institutions engaged in various activities, which may include sales and trading, commercial and investment bank, advisory, investment management, investment research, principal investment, hedging, market making, brokerage and other financial and non-financial activities and services. For example, in connection with our term loan agreement dated December 28, 2023, pursuant to which, and subject to the terms and conditions set forth therein, the term loan lenders thereunder committed to provide a $4.7 billion senior unsecured term loan facility consisting of (i) a $2.0 billion 364-day tranche and (ii) a $2.7 billion 2-year tranche, the proceeds of which were used to finance a portion of the CrownRock Acquisition, an affiliate of J.P. Morgan Securities LLC acted as a syndication agent and is a lender and an affiliate of RBC Capital Markets, LLC acted as a documentation agent and is a lender.

In addition, in the ordinary course of their business activities, the underwriters and their affiliates may make or hold a broad array of investments and actively trade debt and equity securities (or related derivative securities) and financial instruments (including bank loans) for their own account and for the accounts of their customers. Such investments and securities activities may involve securities and/or instruments of ours or our affiliates. If any of the underwriters or their affiliates has a lending relationship with us, certain of those underwriters or their affiliates routinely hedge, certain of those underwriters or their affiliates are likely to hedge and certain other of those underwriters or their affiliates may hedge, their credit exposure to us consistent with their customary risk management policies. Typically, these underwriters and their affiliates would hedge such exposure by entering into transactions which consist of either the purchase of credit default swaps or the creation of short positions in our securities. The underwriters and their affiliates may also make investment recommendations and/or publish or express independent research views in respect of such securities or financial instruments and may hold, or recommend to clients that they acquire, long and/or short positions in such securities and instruments.

No Sales of Similar Securities

We, our directors, executive officers and the Selling Stockholder, have agreed that, without the prior written consent of the underwriters, we and they will not, and will not publicly disclose an intention to, during the period ending 30 days after the date of the underwriting agreement (the “restricted period”):

- offer, pledge, sell, contract to sell, sell any option or contract to purchase, purchase any option or contract to sell, grant any option, right or warrant to purchase, lend or otherwise transfer or dispose of, directly or indirectly, any shares of common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for shares of common stock;
- file any registration statement with the SEC relating to the offering of any shares of common stock or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common stock; or
- enter into any swap, hedging transaction or other arrangement that transfers to another, in whole or in part, any of the economic consequences of ownership of the common stock, whether any such transaction described above is to be settled by delivery of common stock or such other securities, in cash or otherwise. In addition, we and each such person agrees that, without the prior written consent of the underwriters, we or such other person will not, during the restricted period, make any demand for, or exercise any right with respect to, the registration of any shares of common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common stock.

The restrictions described in the immediately preceding paragraph do not apply to:

- (1) the sale of shares of common stock to the underwriters;
- (2) the issuance by Occidental of shares of common stock upon the exercise of an option or a warrant or the conversion of a security outstanding on the date of this prospectus supplement;

- (5) transfers of shares of common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common stock as a bona fide gift intended as a charitable donation;
- (6) transfers of common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common stock by will or other testamentary document or by intestacy;
- (7) transfers of shares of common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common stock to any trust, family limited partnership, or other estate planning vehicles for the direct or indirect benefit of the lock-up party or the immediate family of the lock-up party, or if the lock-up party is a trust, to a trustor or beneficiary of the trust or to the estate of a beneficiary of such trust;
- (8) transfers of shares of common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common stock to a partnership, limited liability company or other entity of which the lock-up party is, or the lock-up party’s family members (as defined in Section A.1(a)(5) of the General Instructions of Form S-8 under the Securities Act) are, the legal and beneficial owner or owners of all of the outstanding equity securities or similar interests;
- (9) transfers of shares of common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common stock to a nominee or custodian of a person or entity to whom a disposition or transfer would be permissible under clauses (4) through (8) above;
- (10) distributions of shares of common stock or any security convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for common stock to limited partners, members, stockholders, or trust beneficiaries of the lock-up party or to any investment fund or entity controlled or managed by the lock-up party;

Listing

Our shares of common stock are listed on the NYSE under the symbol “OXY.”

Price Stabilization and Short Positions

Until the distribution of the shares is completed, SEC rules may limit us, the underwriters and the Selling Stockholder from bidding for and purchasing our common stock. However, the underwriters may engage in transactions that stabilize the price of the common stock, such as bids or purchases to peg, fix or maintain that price.

In connection with the offering, the underwriters may purchase and sell our common stock in the open market. These transactions may include short sales, purchases on the open market to cover positions created by short sales and stabilizing transactions. Short sales involve the sale by the underwriters of a greater number of shares than they are required to purchase in the offering. Stabilizing transactions consist of various bids for or purchases of shares of common stock made by the underwriters in the open market prior to the completion of the offering.

Similar to other purchase transactions, the underwriters’ purchases to cover positions and stabilizing purchases, as well as other purchases by the underwriters for their own account, may have the effect of raising or maintaining the market price of our common stock or preventing or retarding a decline in the market price of our common stock. As a result, the price of our common stock may be higher than the price that might otherwise exist in the open market. The underwriters may conduct these transactions on the NYSE, in the over-the-counter market or otherwise.

Neither we nor the underwriters make any representation or prediction as to the direction or magnitude of any effect that the transactions described above may have on the price of our common stock. In addition, neither we nor the underwriters make any representations that the underwriters will engage in these transactions or that these transactions, once commenced, will not be discontinued without notice.

Passive Market Making

In connection with this offering, the underwriters and the Selling Stockholder may engage in passive market making transactions in the common stock on the NYSE in accordance with Rule 103 of Regulation M under the Exchange Act during a period before the commencement of offers or sales of common stock and extending through the completion of distribution. A passive market maker must display its bid at a price not in excess of the highest independent bid of that security. However, if all independent bids are lowered below the passive market maker’s bid, that bid must then be lowered when specified purchase limits are exceeded. Passive market making may cause the price of our common stock to be higher than the price that otherwise would exist in the open market in the absence of those transactions. The underwriters are not required to engage in passive market making and may end passive market making activities at any time.

Electronic Distribution

In connection with the offering, the underwriters or securities dealers may distribute prospectuses by electronic means, such as e-mail.

These forward-looking statements reflect our current views with respect to future events and are based on numerous assumptions and assessments made by us in light of our experience and perception of historical trends, current conditions, business strategies, operating environments, future developments and other factors we believe appropriate. By their nature, forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks and uncertainties because they relate to events and depend on circumstances that will occur in the future. ABOUT OCCIDENTAL

Our Company

Our principal businesses consist of three reporting segments: oil and gas, chemical and midstream and marketing. The oil and gas segment explores for, develops and produces oil (which includes condensate), NGL and natural gas. The chemical segment primarily manufactures and markets basic chemicals and vinyls. The midstream and marketing segment purchases, markets, gathers, processes, transports and stores oil, NGL, natural gas, carbon dioxide and power. It also optimizes its transportation and storage capacity, and invests in entities that conduct similar activities, such as Western Midstream Partners, L.P.

The midstream and marketing segment also includes our low-carbon ventures businesses (“OLCV”). OLCV seeks to leverage our legacy of carbon management expertise to develop carbon capture, utilization and storage projects, including the commercialization of direct air capture technology, and invests in other low-carbon technologies intended to reduce greenhouse gas emissions from our operations and strategically partner with other industries to help reduce their emissions.

Our principal executive offices are located at 5 Greenway Plaza, Suite 110, Houston, Texas 77046; our telephone number is (713) 215-7000.

Recent Developments

CrownRock Acquisition

As previously disclosed, on August 1, 2024, we closed the acquisition (the “CrownRock Acquisition”) of 100% of the issued and outstanding partner interests of CrownRock, L.P. (“CrownRock”) and issued the shares of our common stock to which this prospectus relates to the selling stockholder. For certain unaudited pro forma condensed consolidated financial statements of Occidental giving effect to the acquisition and other related transactions, see our Current Report on Form 8-K, filed with the SEC on July 19, 2024 and incorporated by reference herein.

RISK FACTORS

Investing in our securities involves risks. Before you invest in our securities you should carefully consider the risk factors relating to an investment in our securities described in this prospectus, any applicable prospectus supplement, any applicable free-writing prospectus and our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2023 and in any subsequent periodic or current reports filed with the SEC under the Exchange Act that include “Risk Factors” or that discuss risks to investing in our securities and that are incorporated herein by reference.

USE OF PROCEEDS

The selling stockholder will receive the proceeds from the sale of shares of our common stock pursuant to this prospectus. We will not receive any proceeds from the sale of these shares of common stock.

SELLING STOCKHOLDER

This prospectus relates to the possible resale by the selling stockholder of up to 29,560,619 shares of our common stock, all of which were issued by us as part of the purchase price in the CrownRock Acquisition. The selling stockholder is the direct recipient of the share consideration issued at closing of the CrownRock Acquisition.

In connection with the closing of the CrownRock Acquisition, we and the selling stockholder entered into a registration rights agreement, dated as of August 1, 2024 (the “Registration Rights Agreement”). Under the Registration Rights Agreement, the selling stockholder has certain demand registration rights as well as certain piggyback rights with respect to certain underwritten offerings conducted by the Company for its own account or other stockholders of the Company.

The table below sets forth information with respect to the beneficial ownership of our common stock by the selling stockholder as of August 2, 2024 as well as the number of shares of common stock that may be sold by the selling stockholder under this prospectus. Percentage ownership as set forth in the table below is based on 905,559,959 shares of our common stock issued and outstanding as of June 30, 2024.

Beneficial ownership is determined in accordance with the rules of the SEC, which generally provide that a person has beneficial ownership of a security if such person possesses sole or shared voting or investment power over that security or has the right to acquire such power within 60 days. We believe that the selling stockholder identified in the table below possesses sole voting and investment power over all of the shares of common stock shown as beneficially owned by it.

Because the selling stockholder may sell some, all or none of its securities, we cannot provide an estimate as to the number of shares of common stock that will be held by the selling stockholder upon completion of any particular offering. See the section of this prospectus captioned “Plan of Distribution” for additional information. Any prospectus supplement or any free-writing prospectus may add, update, substitute or change the information contained in this prospectus, including the identity of the selling stockholder and the number of shares registered on its behalf. For purposes of the table below, however, we have assumed that the selling stockholder will sell all of its shares of common stock covered by this prospectus.

The information in the table below with respect to the selling stockholder has been derived from information provided to us by or on behalf of the selling stockholder. Information concerning the selling stockholder may change from time to time.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL STOCK

General

The following summary describes the material provisions of our capital stock. The summary in this prospectus is not complete. We urge you to read the Restated Certificate of Incorporation of Occidental Petroleum Corporation, as amended (“Certificate of Incorporation”), and the Amended and Restated By-laws of Occidental Petroleum Corporation (“Bylaws”), which are incorporated herein by reference as exhibits to the registration statement of which this prospectus is a part.

Our Certificate of Incorporation authorizes our board of directors, without further stockholder action, to provide for the issuance of up to 1,500,000,000 shares of common stock, par value $0.20 per share. Our Certificate of Incorporation also authorizes our board of directors, without further stockholder action, to provide for the issuance of up to 50,000,000 shares of preferred stock, par value $1.00 per share, in one or more series, and to fix the number of shares to be included in any series and the designation, relative powers, preferences and rights and qualifications, limitations or restrictions of all shares of such series. As of June 30, 2024, our board of directors has authorized two series of preferred stock: the Cumulative Perpetual Preferred Stock, Series A (the “Series A Preferred Stock”), of which 100,000 shares were authorized and 84,897 are outstanding as of such date, and the Series B Junior Participating Preferred Stock, par value $1.00 per share (the “Series B Preferred Stock”), of which 200,000 shares were authorized and no shares are outstanding as of such date.

Common Stock

Dividend Rights

Subject to the dividend rights of the holders of any outstanding series of preferred stock, including the Series A Preferred Stock, the holders of shares of common stock will be entitled to receive dividends when, as and if declared by our board of directors. We will pay those dividends either in cash, shares of common stock or otherwise, at the rate and on the date or dates as declared by our board of directors. Accruals of dividends will not bear interest. As a Delaware corporation, we are subject to statutory limitations on the declaration and payment of dividends.

Liquidation Rights

In the event of any voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up of our affairs, holders of common stock will be entitled to share ratably in our assets that are legally available for distribution to stockholders after payment of liabilities, and after the payment in full of the amounts required to be paid to the holders of any outstanding class or series of preferred stock. Because we are a holding company, holders of common stock may not receive assets of our subsidiaries in the event of our liquidation until the claims of creditors of such subsidiaries are paid, except to the extent that we are a creditor of, and may have recognized claims against, such subsidiaries.

Voting Rights

Each holder of common stock entitled to vote will have one vote for each one share of common stock held on all matters to be voted upon by our stockholders, including elections of directors. Except as otherwise required by law, our Certificate of Incorporation or our Bylaws, any question brought before any meeting of stockholders will be decided by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting and entitled to vote on the subject matter. Directors will be elected by a majority of the votes cast, unless the number of nominees exceeds the number of directors to be elected, in which case the directors will be elected by the vote of a plurality of the votes cast.

Conversion, Redemption and Preemptive Rights

Holders of our common stock have no conversion, redemption, preemptive, subscription or similar rights.

Anti-Takeover Effects of our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws and of Delaware Law

Our Certificate of Incorporation and our Bylaws and Delaware law contain certain provisions that may have the effect of delaying, deferring or preventing a takeover attempt that a stockholder might consider in its best interest, including those attempts that could result in a premium over the market price for the shares held by stockholders. Following is a description of certain of the anti-takeover effects of such provisions.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Special Meetings of Stockholders. Our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws currently provide that special meetings of our stockholders may be called by our board of directors or the Chairman of our board of directors. In addition, subject to certain procedural requirements contained in our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, special meetings of stockholders may be called by the Secretary upon the written request of record holders of at least 15% of our outstanding common stock.

Advance Notice Requirements for Stockholder Proposals and Director Nominations. Our Bylaws provide that stockholders seeking to bring business before an annual meeting of stockholders or to nominate candidates for election as directors at an annual or special meeting of stockholders must provide timely notice to us thereof in writing within the time periods specified in our Bylaws. Our Bylaws also specify requirements as to the form and content of a stockholder's notice. These provisions may preclude some stockholders from bringing matters before the stockholders at an annual or special meeting or from making nominations for directors at an annual or special meeting.

Stockholder Action by Written Consent. Stockholders are permitted to take action without a meeting by written consent, subject to certain procedures specified in our Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws.

Limitations on Stockholders' Ability to Change the Number of Directors. The number of directors to serve on our board of directors is fixed by our Bylaws and, pursuant to our Bylaws, can only be changed by resolution of our directors or stockholders. In addition, our Certificate of Incorporation provides that any vacancy on our board of directors (including any vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors) may be filled by a majority of our board of directors then in office. These provisions limit the ability of a stockholder to appoint new directors to our board of directors and may have the effect of discouraging an attempt to obtain control of us by means of a proxy contest or otherwise.

Authorized but Unissued Capital Stock. Our Certificate of Incorporation authorizes our board of directors to issue one or more series of preferred stock and to determine, with respect to any such series of preferred stock, the number of shares to be included in any such series and the designation, relative powers, preferences, rights and qualifications, limitations or restrictions of such series of preferred stock. The Delaware General Corporation Law (the "DGCL") does not require stockholder approval for any issuance of previously authorized shares of our capital stock. Such shares may be used for a variety of corporate purposes, including future public offerings, to raise additional capital or to facilitate acquisitions.

One of the effects of the existence of unissued and unreserved common stock or preferred stock may be to enable our board of directors to issue shares to persons who support current management, which issuance could render more difficult or discourage an attempt to obtain control of us by means of a merger, tender offer, proxy contest or otherwise. In addition, provisions that could discourage an unsolicited tender offer or takeover proposal, such as extraordinary voting, dividend, redemption or conversion rights, could be included in a series of preferred stock.

No Cumulative Voting. The DGCL provides that stockholders of a Delaware corporation are not entitled to the right to cumulate votes in the election of directors unless its certificate of incorporation provides otherwise. Our Certificate of Incorporation does not entitle holders of common stock to cumulative voting rights in the election of directors or otherwise. A cumulative voting provision could make it easier for minority stockholders to elect one or more directors to our board of directors.

General Corporation Law of the State of Delaware. We are a Delaware corporation that is subject to Section 203 of the DGCL. Section 203 provides that, subject to certain exceptions specified in the law, a Delaware corporation shall not engage in certain "business combinations" with any "interested stockholder" for a three-year period following the time that the stockholder became an interested stockholder unless:

- prior to such time, the board of directors approved either the business combination or the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder;
- upon consummation of the transaction that resulted in the stockholder becoming an interested stockholder, the interested stockholder owned at least 85% of the corporation's voting stock outstanding at the time the transaction commenced, excluding certain shares; or
- at or subsequent to that time, the business combination is approved by the board of directors of the corporation and by the affirmative vote of holders of at least 66²/₃% of the outstanding voting stock that is not owned by the interested stockholder.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

A “business combination” includes certain mergers, asset or stock sales and other transactions involving the interested stockholder. Subject to certain exceptions, an “interested stockholder” is a person who, together with that person’s affiliates and associates, owns (or within the previous three years did own) 15% or more of the corporation’s voting stock.

Section 203 could prohibit or delay a merger or other takeover attempt and, accordingly, may discourage attempts to acquire us.

Series A Preferred Stock

Dividend Rights

Dividends on the Series A Preferred Stock accrue at a rate per annum of 8% but will be paid only when, as and if declared by our board of directors out of legally available funds. At any time when such dividends, compounded quarterly, have not been paid in full, the unpaid amounts will accrue dividends at a rate per annum of 9%. Following the payment in full of any accrued but unpaid dividends, the dividend rate will remain at 9% per annum.

Before any dividends or distributions (other than dividends or distributions payable in common stock or other stock ranking junior to the Series A Preferred Stock as to dividends and upon liquidation) on the common stock or other stock ranking junior to the Series A Preferred Stock as to dividends and upon liquidation shall be declared and set apart for payment or paid, the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock will be entitled to receive full cumulative dividends for the current and all prior dividend periods.

Rights Upon Liquidation

The Series A Preferred Stock will be preferred over the common stock and other stock ranking junior to the Series A Preferred Stock as to assets, so that the holders of the Series A Preferred Stock will be entitled to be paid, upon our voluntary or involuntary liquidation, dissolution or winding up, and before any distribution is made to the holders of common stock and other stock ranking junior to the Series A Preferred Stock, an amount equal to the sum of (i) $105,000 per share and (ii) the accrued and unpaid dividends thereon (including, if applicable, dividends on such amount), whether or not declared, to the date of payment.

Redemption and Required Repurchases

Commencing on August 8, 2029, the Series A Preferred Stock will be redeemable at our option in whole or from time to time in part, at a redemption price of 105% of the face value to be redeemed plus any accrued and unpaid dividends (whether or not declared).

We are required to repurchase shares of the Series A Preferred Stock if we make specified excess distributions or otherwise return capital to holders of junior or parity stock, including the common stock, in excess of specified amounts at a redemption price of 110% of the face value to be redeemed plus any accrued and unpaid dividends (whether or not declared).

Voting Rights

The holders of the Series A Preferred Stock have no voting rights, except as required by law and as described in the next sentence. Without the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of the Series A Preferred Stock then outstanding, we may not (1) authorize, create, increase the authorized amount of, or issue any shares of any class or series of stock ranking senior to the Series A Preferred Stock, (2) increase or decrease the aggregate number of authorized shares of Series A Preferred Stock, (3) alter or change the rights, preferences, privileges or powers of the Series A Preferred Stock or (4) subject to certain exceptions, consummate a binding share exchange or reclassification involving the Series A Preferred Stock, or a merger or consolidation of Occidental with another corporation or other entity.

PLAN OF DISTRIBUTION

This prospectus relates to the offer and sale, from time to time, by the selling stockholder of shares of our common stock. We are registering the resale of these shares of our common stock, but the registration of such shares does not necessarily mean that any of such shares will be offered or sold by the selling stockholder pursuant to this prospectus or at all. As used in this section, the term “selling stockholder” includes pledgees, donees, assignees, distributees, transferees or other successors-in-interest selling such shares of our common stock received after the date of this prospectus from a selling stockholder as a gift, pledge, distribution or other non-sale related transfer.

The selling stockholder may, from time to time, offer the shares of our common stock at fixed prices, at market prices or varying prices prevailing at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market prices or at negotiated prices, and by a variety of methods, including the following methods:

- one or more transactions (which may involve underwritten offerings on a firm commitment or best-efforts basis, cross sales or block transactions) on the NYSE or otherwise;
- ordinary brokerage transactions and transactions in which the broker-dealer solicits purchasers;
- secondary distributions pursuant to and in accordance with the rules of the NYSE;
- through one or more electronic trading platforms or services;
- over-the-counter market, in negotiated transactions;
- direct sales to one or more purchasers, including affiliates;
- privately negotiated transactions;
- short sales;
- distributions to members, general partners and limited partners;
- through the writing of options or other hedging transactions on the shares (whether such options are listed on an options exchange or otherwise);
- a combination of such methods of sale; or
- any other method permitted by applicable law.

The selling stockholder may effect such transactions by selling the shares of our common stock offered in this prospectus to or through underwriters, broker-dealers or other agents, including electronic trading platforms or similar services, and such underwriters, broker-dealers or agents may receive compensation in the form of underwriting discounts, commissions or fees from the selling stockholder or the purchasers of shares for whom they may act as agent. The selling stockholder and any underwriters, broker-dealers or agents that participate in the distribution of the shares of common stock offered in this prospectus may be deemed to be “underwriters” within the meaning of the Securities Act, and any commissions received by them and any profit on the sale of registered shares may be deemed to be underwriting commissions or discounts under the Securities Act.

The selling stockholder may have agreements with underwriters, dealers and agents to indemnify them against certain civil liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act, and to reimburse them for certain expenses.

In the event of a “distribution” of the shares of our common stock offered in this prospectus, the selling stockholder, any selling broker-dealer or agent and any “affiliated purchasers” may be subject to Regulation M under the Exchange Act, which would prohibit, with certain exceptions, each such person from bidding for or purchasing any security which is the subject of such distribution until his, her or its participation in that distribution is completed. In addition, Regulation M under the Exchange Act prohibits certain “stabilizing bids” or “stabilizing purchases” for the purpose of pegging, fixing or stabilizing the price of common stock in connection with a potential offering.

In connection with the sale of its shares of common stock or interests therein, the selling stockholder may enter into derivative transactions with underwriters, broker-dealers or other financial institutions or sell securities not covered by this prospectus to third parties in privately negotiated transactions. If the applicable prospectus supplement indicates, in connection with those derivative transactions, the broker-dealers or other financial institutions or third parties may sell securities covered by this prospectus, including in short sale transactions.

TABLE OF CONTENTS

If so, the broker-dealer or other financial institution or third party may use securities pledged by the selling stockholder or borrowed from the selling stockholder to settle those sales or to close out any related open borrowings of shares, and may use securities received from the selling stockholder in settlement of those derivative transactions to close out any related open borrowings of shares. The selling stockholder may also enter into options or other transactions with broker-dealers or other financial institutions which require the delivery to such broker-dealer or other financial institution of shares offered by this prospectus, which shares such broker-dealer or other financial institution may resell pursuant to this prospectus (as supplemented or amended to reflect such transaction).

At a time a particular offering of shares of our common stock is made, a prospectus supplement or free-writing prospectus may be distributed that will set forth the shares of our common stock to be sold, the name of the selling stockholder, the respective purchase prices and public offering prices, the name or names of any underwriters, dealers, brokers or agents, any applicable commissions or discounts with respect to the particular offer and any other required information.

In addition, any shares of common stock that qualify for sale pursuant to Rule 144 under the Securities Act may be sold under Rule 144 rather than pursuant to this prospectus.
