Item 4. Changes in Registrant's Certifying Accountant

Effective March 22, 2002, the Board of Directors of Occidental Petroleum Corporation (the "Company") decided to no longer engage Arthur Andersen LLP ("Arthur Andersen" or "AA") as the Company's independent public accountants and engaged KPMG LLP ("KPMG") to serve as the Company's independent public accountants for the fiscal year 2002, in accordance with the recommendation of the Board's Audit Committee.

Arthur Andersen's audit reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements for each of the fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 did not contain an adverse opinion or disclaimer of opinion, nor were they qualified or modified as to uncertainty, audit scope or accounting principles.

During the Company's two fiscal years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 and the subsequent interim period preceding the decision to change independent public accountants, there were no disagreements with Arthur Andersen on any matter of accounting principles or practices, financial statement disclosure, or auditing scope or procedure which, if not resolved to AA's satisfaction would have caused them to make reference to the subject matter of the disagreement in connection with the audit reports on the Company's consolidated financial statements for such years, and there were no reportable events as defined in Item 304(a)(1)(v) of Regulation S-K.

The Company provided Arthur Andersen with a copy of the foregoing disclosures. Attached as Exhibit 16.1 is a copy of AA's letter, dated March 22, 2002, stating its agreement with such statements.

In the years ended December 31, 2001 and 2000 and through the date hereof, the Company did not consult KPMG with respect to the application of accounting principles to a specified transaction, either completed or proposed, or the type of audit opinion that might be rendered on the Company's consolidated financial statements, or any other matters or reportable events as set forth in Items 304(a)(2)(i) and (ii) of Regulation S-K.

OCCIDENTAL APPOINTS KPMG AUDITOR

LOS ANGELES -- Occidental Petroleum Corporation (NYSE: OXY) announced today that its Board of Directors has appointed KPMG as the company's independent auditor for 2002, replacing Arthur Andersen, LLP.

Dr. Ray R. Irani, chairman and chief executive officer of Occidental, said, "The Andersen team that has served Occidental provided outstanding audit services and met our high standards during the course of a long and highly professional relationship."

Occidental Petroleum Corporation is one of the world's largest independent oil and natural gas exploration and production companies with operations concentrated in the United States, the Middle East and Latin America. Through its chemical subsidiary, OxyChem, Occidental also is a leading North American manufacturer and marketer of basic chemicals and certain performance chemicals. In 2001, Occidental reported net income of approximately $1.2 billion on net sales of $14 billion.
